Several Prisoners in Newgate, at an Adjournment of the Sessions of the Peace, and Oyer and Terminer, Held for the City of London and County of Middlesex, on Saturday the 21th. Day of March, 1685. And in the First Year of His Majesties Reign.

WHereas at several Sessions, last past, held for the City of London, and County of Middlesex, divers Felons and other Criminals had received Sentence of Death and Transportation, it pleased His Most Sacred Majesty out of His Inherent Clemency peculiarly Resident in his Royal Line, in Imitation of His Mercifully Famous, and ever to be Remembered Ancestors, to extend the favour of His Free and Gracious Pardon to the several Prisoners here under Named. In order whereunto, at the late Sessions of Oyer and Terminer, Held for the County aforesaid, on the 25th 26th, and 27th, Days of February last past, an Adjournment was there made till Fryday the 6th of March Instant, and from thence to the 21th. of the same Month; where the Right Honourable Sir James Smith, Kt. Lord Mayor, of the City of London, Sir Thomas Jenner Kt. one of his Majesties Serjeants at Law, and Recorder of the said City, together with others of the Worshipful the Aldermen of the said City, the same Day about three of the Clock in the Afternoon, did call over the several Prisoners here under Named, for whom a General Pardon was there Read, which they severally on their respective knees pleaded: which the Court was pleased to Allow of; and accordingly the said Malefactors were thereby Pardoned: which being over, the Court was pleased to Adjourn the next General Sessions for the Peace at Guild-Hall, to the 27th of April, and for London and Middlesex at the Old-Bayly, to the 29th. of the said Month.
